COMPLAINT

Jack Jarrell and Michael Pfieffer (“Trustees”) and Iron Workers Tennessee Valley and Vicinity Annuity Fund (“Plaintiff Fund”), complaining of Roy Blackwell Enterprises, Inc. (“Defendant”) and Roy Blackwell (“Blackwell”), allege as follows:

1. This action is brought and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq., as amended by the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980, in particular 29 U.S.C. § 1145 (Section 515 of ERISA) and is a civil action to recover employer contributions owed to the Plaintiff Fund.

2. The Trustees are fiduciaries of Plaintiff Fund as that term is used at 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a) and bring this action to secure appropriate relief for Plaintiff Fund.

3. Venue is based on 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(2) as Plaintiff Fund is a pension plan administered in this judicial district through Southern Benefit Administrators, Incorporated of Goodlettsville, Tennessee.

4. Plaintiff Fund is an employee pension plan as defined at 29 U.S.C. §1002 (2)(A) and is primarily funded by contributions remitted by multiple participating employers pursuant to a negotiated collective bargaining agreement with a local labor organization. All principal and income from such contributions and investments thereof is held and used for the exclusive purpose of providing pension benefits to participants of the Plaintiff Fund after paying administrative and other reasonable expenses of the Plaintiff Fund.

5. During all pertinent times, Defendant was party to a collective bargaining agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, Defendant was to pay contributions to the Plaintiff Fund on behalf of covered employees.

6. Pursuant to the collective bargaining agreement, Defendant was bound by the provisions of the trust agreement by virtue of which Plaintiff Fund was created and operates and which provides in pertinent part that employer contributions such as those owed by Defendant to Plaintiff Fund are an asset of Plaintiff Fund when due. The Defendant is obligated under the trust agreement to treat contributions as an asset of the Plaintiff Fund when those contributions become due.

7. Plaintiff Fund operates on the basis of an employer self-reporting payment system whereby participating employers such as Roy Blackwell identify those employees for whom contributions are owed, identify the weeks worked by the covered employees, and based upon employee work history reported, the employers make contributions and payments to the Plaintiff Fund.

8. The Plaintiff Fund is primarily funded by contributions remitted by multiple participating employers pursuant to a negotiated collective bargaining agreement. All principal and income from such contributions and investments thereof is held and used for the exclusive purpose of providing pension benefits to participants and beneficiaries of the Plaintiff Fund after paying administrative and other reasonable expenses.

9. The collective bargaining agreement and trust agreement require prompt payment of all such contributions, failing which a delinquent employer may be assessed with attorney's fees and other fees for late payment as permitted by law, plus interest on unpaid contributions. Plaintiff Fund operates pursuant to written procedures which authorize the entry of a judgment against an employer for contributions owed to include, by mandate of the Court, the greater of a doubling of the interest or liquidated damages based upon unpaid contributions in the amount of twenty percent (20%), all as allowed by 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(g)(2)(C)(i) and (ii).

10. Section 306(a) of the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980, adding Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1145, provides that every employer who is obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan under the terms of the plan or under the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall, to the extent not inconsistent with law, make contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plan or such agreement.

11. Defendant is a party in interest as those terms are defined in ERISA at 29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(5) and 1002(14)(c). Defendant has breached the above-referenced provisions of ERISA, the collective bargaining agreement, and the trust agreement whereby the Plaintiff Fund was created and operates, such breach occurring by virtue of Defendant failing to pay any of the contributions and interest due thereon and having failed to submit reports with the employee work history for employees.

12. Blackwell is the President of Defendant, and upon information and belief, he decides on behalf of Defendant which creditors of Defendant to pay and when to pay them, and beginning in June 2022, Blackwell caused Defendant to use assets of Plaintiff Fund in the form of contributions owed to Plaintiff Fund to pay creditors of Defendant. Blackwell is an ERISA fiduciary personally liable under 29 U.S.C. 1103, 1104 and 1109 for using assets of Plaintiff Fund to pay creditors instead of paying contributions to Plaintiff Fund.

13. Despite demand by Plaintiff Fund that Defendant perform its statutory, contractual, and trust obligations with respect to making contributions to the Plaintiff Fund, Defendant has neglected and refused to pay the amounts that are due, and as a consequence of the conduct described herein, Defendant owes accumulated interest on the unpaid contributions as a result of its conduct as described herein.

14. The failure of Defendant to pay contributions on behalf of its employees will cause Plaintiff Fund to suffer irreparable harm; further, employer delinquencies such as those of Defendant adversely affect and impact upon the financial integrity of the Plaintiff Fund, and the continued delinquency will cause the Plaintiff Fund to lose the benefit of interest income that it would otherwise earn and will cause Plaintiff Fund to incur additional administrative expenses in connection with the remedying of the delinquencies of Defendant.

15. Copies of this Complaint will be served upon the Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of the Treasury by certified mail in accordance with the provisions of ERISA Section 502(h), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(h).

WHEREFORE, the Trustees and Plaintiff Fund requests the following relief:

(a) A permanent injunction enjoining Defendant and Blackwell from violating the provisions of ERISA, the collective bargaining agreement, and the trust agreement requiring payment of contributions.

(b) A judgment against Defendant and Blackwell and in favor of Trustees and Plaintiff Fund for all contributions that are owed as of the date of the judgment plus the greater of double interest or single interest plus liquidated damages and all attorney fees and costs incurred in connection with this action.

(c) For such further or different relief as the Court may deem proper or just.

Respectfully submitted,
